Federal Opportunities

Skills Shortages, Partnership Training/System Building Demonstration Program. The Department of Labor announces funds to respond to employers' identified skill shortages through the establishment or strengthening of regional consortia. Eligible applicants include Private Industry Councils, local Workforce Investment Boards, employers, trade associations, labor unions, institutions of higher learning, economic development agencies, and community organizations. The deadline is March 30, 2000. The maximum award is $750,000 and approximately 20 awards of varying sizes will be made. For further information, contact B. Jai Johnson by fax at (202) 219-8739. Also see www.doleta.gov.

National Youth Substance Abuse Prevention Initiative (State Incentive Grants). The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration announces funds to coordinate, leverage and/or redirect Federal and State substance abuse prevention resources to develop and implement an effective, comprehensive, new Statewide prevention strategy aimed at reducing drug use by youth. Only Executive Officers of eligible entities (States' Governors, DC's Mayor) that to date have not received State Incentive Grant funds may apply. The deadline is May 10, 2000. Four awards will be made, totaling $12 million. Contact Dave Robbins at (301) 443-0369. Also see www.samhsa.gov.

Evaluation of Outpatient Treatment Models for Persons with Co-Occurring Substance Abuse and Mental Health Disorders. The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration announces the availability of funds for grants to identify effective substance abuse treatment projects or models of care that show promise for replication elsewhere for persons with co-occurring substance abuse and mental health disorders. State and local governments, as well as nonprofit and for-profit organizations may submit applications. The deadline is May 23, 2000. Approximately nine awards will be made, with an expected range of $300,000 to $400,000 each. For more information, contact Edith Jungblut at (301) 443-6669.

Targeted Capacity Expansion Program for Substance Abuse Treatment and HIV/AIDS Services. The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) invites applications to enhance and expand substance abuse treatment and HIV/AIDS services in African-American, Hispanic/Latino, and/or other racial/ethnic minority communities highly affected by the twin epidemics of substance abuse and HIV/AIDS. SAMHSA's intention is to target areas at highest risk of HIV transmission. All public, nonprofit and private organizations are eligible. The deadline for submission is June 13, 2000. Between 30 and 40 awards will be made. Awards will range between $100,000 and $500,000. Contact Lisa Manley at (301) 443-2297 for more information.

Parenting and Family Strengthening Prevention Interventions. The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration announces funds to increase the capacity of local communities to deliver best practices in effective parenting and family programs in order to reduce or prevent substance abuse. Eligible applicants include nonprofit and for-profit entities as well as State and local government units. The deadline is June 13, 2000. Up to $2.5 million is available to support 20-30 awards. For information, contact Rose Kittrell at (301) 443-0353.

Addendum: Community Action Grants for Service Systems Change. The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration solicits applications to stimulate activities by communities that will result in adoption of specific exemplary service delivery practices that yield the best results for target populations. A priority for Hispanic populations has been added. Public agencies, nonprofit and community organizations, as well as private entities are eligible. The deadline is May 10, 2000. Approximately ten awards will be made totaling $1.5 million. For information, contact Jane Ruiz at (301) 443-8802. Also see www.samhsa.gov.

Early Head Start Nationwide Expansion. The Administration for Children and Families announces financial assistance to provide child and family development services for low-income families with children under age three and pregnant women. Grants will be awarded to establish or expand Early Head Start programs. Public, private and nonprofit organizations are eligible, as well as Early Head Start and Head Start grantees. The deadline is May 1, 2000. Between 100 and 125 awards will be made of approximately $150,000. For further information, call 1-800-351-2293 or email ehs@lcgnet.com. Also see www.acf.dhhs.gov/programs/hsb.

TRIO Dissemination Partnership Program. The Department of Education provides grants to TRIO Program grantees to enable them to work with institutions and organizations that are serving low-income and first-generation college students, but do not have TRIO Program grants. Eligible applicants are limited to institutions of higher learning that were carrying out a Federal TRIO grant before October 7, 1998. The deadline is May 15, 2000. Approximately 25 awards will be made, and the average size will be $160,000. Contact Eileen Bland at (202) 502-7600 or eileen_bland@ed.gov.

Drug-Free Communities Support Program. The Department of Justice announces funds to increase citizen participation and strengthen community antidrug coalition efforts to reduce substance abuse among youth. Eligible applicants are community coalitions whose members have worked together on substance abuse reduction initiatives for a period of not less than 6 months. The deadline is May 9, 2000. Approximately 90 awards will be made for $100,000. For more information, contact Lauren Ziegler at (202) 616-8988 or Ziegler@ojp.usdoj.gov.
